

Privacy Policy

The Network4M Los Angeles will not disclose personal information to any third party unless we believe that disclosure is necessary: (1) to conform to legal requirements or to respond to a subpoena, search warrant or other legal process received by the Network4M Los Angeles, whether or not a response is required by applicable law; (2) to enforce the Network4M Los Angeles Terms of Service Agreement or to protect our rights; or (3) to protect the safety of members of the public and users of the service. The Network4M Los Angeles reserves the right to transfer personal information to a successor in interest that acquires rights to that information as a result of the sale of the Network4M Los Angeles or substantially all of its assets to that successor in interest. For more information see the "Changes in Our Privacy Policy" section below.

Changes in Our Privacy Policy From time to time, we may make changes to our privacy policy. If we make changes, we will post them on our site to make users aware of what the changes are so users will always be aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and when we may disclose it. A User is bound by any minor changes to the policy when she or he uses the Network4M Los Angeles's Services after those changes have been posted. If, however, we are going to use users' personally identifiable information in a manner materially different from that stated at the time of collection, we will notify by posting a notice on our Web site for 30 days.

Contacting the Web Site If you have any questions about this privacy statement, the practices of the Network4M Los Angeles, or your dealings with this Web site, please contact us at info@network4mla.com.
